Public Comment

Chair Dowling moved the public comment up in agenda to respect the numerous guest at the meeting. We went around the room and did introductions.

Bob Pena, an involved resident, advocated to the board to consider bicyclist safety and tree preservation as they pursue future initiatives.

Mr. Abraham introduced himself as a real estate investor who owns some properties along the corridor. He informed the board of a potential plan to bring a food truck court to Saginaw St.

Presentation on the SSCIA Marketing Effort- M3

Angela Winkler initiated the Marketing Effort Presentation, updating the board on M3 brand development work for the corridor. M3 plans to have another presentation for the group soon.

Discussion on the 2025 Spending Plan

The board had a brief discussion on the categories of spending plans. They plan to continue the conversation at the next meeting.
