Discussion/Action:

RESOLUTION – Appointment of Stacey Locke; Board of Public Service; At-Large Member; Term to Expire June 30, 2021

MOTION BY COUNCIL MEMBER WASHINGTON TO APPROVE THE RESOLUTION FOR THE APPOINTMENT OF STACEY LOCKE TO THE BOARD OF PUBLIC SERVICE AS AN AT-LARGE MEMBER.

Ms. Locke outlined her work experience with Peckham and hands on work with advocacy groups assisting them to find their voices regarding their concerns. Over the past she worked with the now Mayor Schor at the State level with people with disabilities. Ms. Locke assured the Committee that her role on the Board would be to understand what Council expectations are, and listen to the residents, and encouraging people to be a part of the solution.

Council Member Spadafore acknowledged Ms. Locke for her offer to serve and believed her skill set will be an asset to the Board of Public Service to address universal design.

Council Member Washington asked Ms. Locke to confirm she had everything with the vetting process addresses, and Ms. Locke confirmed.

Council Member Garza referenced the application which noted Ms. Locke's first choice was the Park Board and asked if she would be okay with this choice or still wants the Park Board in the future. Ms. Locke answered that she was confident in the Mayor's choice and believes now that the Committee on Public Service is a good choice and more inclusive for the goals she wants to bring.

MOTION CARRIED 3-0.

Other

Council Member Spadafore updated the Committee on a recent public comment at the Committee of the Whole on April 2nd regarding a fence and stated that after a discussion with Council President Wood, she will be taking the discussion up at the Committee on Public Safety instead of referring it to Committee on Public Service.
